	Barry Doig	Print	Open	The Dancer		NA
	Barry Doig	Print	Open	Through a Miner's Window		NA
	Iain Galloway	Print	Open	Melbourne Corridor		A
	Carolyn Hope	Print	Open	City Skyview	The surreal colours and fantastical shapes suggest a different view of the city. It feels challenging but not threatening	M
	Carolyn Hope	Print	Open	Warren	This is a wonderful portrait. The soft lighting allows us to see clearly under the hoodie where Warren has a twinkle in his eye and a hint of a smile.	H
	Carolyn Hope	Print	Open	Woman with Bucket		NA
	Eunice Belk	Print	Open	Closing Down		A
	Denise Manning	Print	Open	I Wanna be a Storm Trooper		NA
	Denise Manning	Print	Open	JUMP		NA
	Denise Manning	Print	Open	RIP	This is full of implied story. The cross with a poppy against the dark forest with a desolate looking texture overlay leave me wondering what happened to Snow.	M
	Irene Callaghan	Print	Open	Lime Light	You have made a simple slice of lime into an interesting form. The backlight creates depth and the subdued colour creates quiet interest. The longer I look at this the more I see.	M
	Irene Callaghan	Print	Open	Poppy garden		NA
	Irene Callaghan	Print	Open	New Brighton Sunrise	This is a different take on an often-photographed structure. The colours of the morning are softened by the vertical movement while the rails on the pier remain sharp to create an interesting counterpoint.	M

Cushla Moorhead	Print	Open	What is the Time		NA
Cushla Moorhead	Print	Open	Appleby House		NA
Nola Neal	Print	Open	The Shearing Shed		NA
Nola Neal	Print	Open	Snow White		NA
Natalie Smith	Print	Open	Harry the Heron	By naming him you have added a layer to the story. "Harry" seems confident in his right to be there and almost challenging to us. The texture and the framing gives me the sense that we are peeking at him through a window.	H
Owen Dunn	Print	Open	Morning Sunrise - Hamilton Island		A
Helen Howie	Print	Open	Still Life		NA
